

For the June Bride

"Oh, dear," sighed the prospective June bride to herself, "I do hope somebody has thought enough to choose one of those perfectly stunning little gate-leg tables for us. I do want one so much, and I've so many other things to buy. I just know someone will spend just twice as much as that on something I don't want, and I wish I could tell them to select a table."

TALK OF THE TOWN

Leon F. Nixon of Bolster avenue has so far recovered as to be able to walk down town.

A very important meeting of the Knights of Columbus will be held on Wednesday evening. A good attendance is desired.

John DeBrue, together with his wife and daughter, has returned his home on South Main street after spending several days with their parents in Burlington.

Largest line of new and second-hand ranges in Barre, Perfection and Kenosha oil stoves, waxes and ovens. Call and get prices. E. A. Prindle, Worthen block.

Bracelet watches for graduation gifts. We have a large assortment of all American makes. Standardized Swiss ones also. The Phillips & Lucas Store, Montpelier.

Mrs. Arthur Miles of South Main street, who for the past two weeks has been confined to the bed due to a mastoid abscess, is making quite satisfactory recovery.

Mrs. H. S. Miles and daughter have returned to Boston, where they resided during the winter months, after passing the memorial holidays with relatives in the city. In about four weeks they will make a permanent home once more in Barre.

James McHardy, the Spaulding high school right forward of the basketball team, drawing the attention of many during the season with good work in the games, was elected captain of the 1920 team by members of his past season team at a meeting yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Collins and two children left yesterday afternoon for Detroit, Mich., abandoning their home on Ayers street. Mr. Collins for the last 10 years has been employed at the Martinson estate granite works but will enter an automobile factory in Detroit since a position was offered him before leaving this city.

The open cars on the electric road were highly appreciated by the sweltering people last evening. The first to appear this season arrived at City square at 4:15 yesterday afternoon. While rolling through the main street many eyes were attracted by the breezy vehicles, while in the evening the public well repaid the management for its timely change.

A pleasant gathering took place at the home of J. H. Nelson on Park street last evening, the occasion being the seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fitch R. Wiley. A musical program and games occupied the attention of the guests during the evening. Several pleasing piano solos were rendered by Mrs. F. Freeman of Burlington and Miss Ruth E. Nelson. Refreshments were served. A presentation of a hand-painted olive set to Mr. and Mrs. Wiley was made.

Miss Elsie Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. O. Lambert of 94 Brook street was quietly united in marriage to Leo Papazzoni at the Universalist parsonage, Northfield, by Rev. Mr. Bingham yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The single ring ceremony was used, there being present only two witnesses. The marriage comes as a surprise to the young couple's friends. Miss Lambert attended Spaulding high school, while Mr. Papazzoni is a lumber in a local granite plant. They will make their home in this city. Best wishes are being extended Mr. and Mrs. Papazzoni by their friends.

The Traveler, the organ of the W. C. T. of Worcester, Mass., in its June issue, has the following of interest to Barre people: "Make Our Home Your Home." This is the word passed to you at the Hotel Barre, Barre, Vt. And the genial manager, John Rowen, and his able assistants see to it that the attitude of the house try to make everyone feel they are at home. The hotel has 75 rooms, all with hot and cold water, also bath tub and shower baths as one prefers. Good garage in the rear and if one prefers to look after his own car auto stalls can be had close by. Barre is situated six miles from Montpelier and commercial men can easily make Hotel Barre their headquarters while working in that vicinity. Half hour trolley and jitney service to Montpelier at all times of day, where good train connections can be made both north and south. Barre is on the main White River valley auto route, half-way between Burlington and White River Junction.—Make it a point to stop at Hotel Barre on your next trip through Vermont.

GRANITEVILLE

The Graniteville A. C. won from the South End A. C. of Barre Tuesday by a score of 7 to 3. Beaton allowed the visitors only two safeties and caused 20 of them to fan the breeze. In the fourth inning Abbiatti, the game little shortstop of the visitors, suffered a broken arm while sliding home and was rushed to Barre, where the fracture was reduced. The score:

| GRANITEVILLE | A. C. | SOUTH END A. C. |
|----------------------|----------------------|-----------------|
| Sheridan, rf 4 1 1 0 | Botazzi, lf 4 0 1 0 | |

Mackenzie, Aldrich, Polli, Lille, Abbiatti. Struck out by Beaton 20, by Pell 12. Umpire—Sullivan and King. Score—Gr. 7, S. E. 3.

To the Married Men:

We single men are in receipt of your windy letter. You caused quite a drought with your blowing. Now this challenge to us is extremely ill-timed, as we will be unable to place more than four of our regular team on the field Thursday evening. Our pitcher is out, one man is to be out of town, our right fielder has a bad knee, and our catcher had a finger split in the game Tuesday night. Would you not be willing to postpone the contest until the following week, when we promise to give you a better trimming than the allies gave old Hindenburg. You can see that it will be much better for your reputation to be shown up by our first team than to have our second-string men swamp you. Please confer with our manager and captain and settle with them all matters concerning the coming contest. Can you benedicta best us? If you can, then Nick Altrock has a fine chance to win a beauty contest from Marguerite Clark. As to pounding that pill to all corners of the lot, we have a strong notion that as heavy sluggers you are all cross-eyed carpenters. No doubt you have a good team—for us to trim. Yours pessimistically, Single Men.

Notice.

Discharged soldiers and sailors are asked to register date of discharge at the home service section of the Red Cross, Jackson block, room 4, Monday, Tuesday and Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoons, also by appointment. Mrs. F. E. Robinson, executive secretary.

TALK OF THE TOWN

"Lure of the Circus," Bijou to-day.

Mrs. Alida Dunham left this morning for a ten-day visit to Burlington, and will attend the convention of the Eastern Star, held there this week.

The first quarterly conference of the Hedding Methodist Episcopal church for the current year is to be held Thursday evening. The conference will be held at the church at 7:30 o'clock, and Rev. E. W. Sharpe of St. Johnsbury, the district superintendent, will preside. It is important that all members of the conference should attend.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the Spaulding baseball team will meet for the second time the St. Albans high school team. Just last Friday these two teams met at St. Albans and fought for 12 innings before the victor could be decided upon, which finally went to Spaulding after two of the players clouted the ball for two safe hits. St. Albans comes here with the determination to take the second game; on the other hand the local boys hope to prevent an extra inning game.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Funeral of Miss Katherine M. Carlin H-d Tuesday.

The funeral of Miss Katherine M. Carlin was held from her late home in Williamstown Tuesday, June 3, at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Markey officiating and interment was in the family lot in the Williamstown cemetery. The many beautiful floral tributes which blanketed the casket were a token of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The bearers were her two nephews and two friends.

Those from out of town who came to attend the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bishop and two sons, Carl of South Lancaster, Mass., and first-class Private Clyde M. of Fort Adams, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cheney of West Burke, Mrs. James Baldwin and daughter, Miss Nathalie, of St. Johnsbury, Edward Goodwin of Lyndonville, Mrs. James Gregory and daughter, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Marsh of Barre.

The order of O. E. S. attended the services in a body and conducted their ritual at the grave. Miss Carlin will be greatly missed in her home, where she had been so tenderly cared for during the last weeks of her illness, which she bore so patiently. We feel that what is our loss is her gain and we would not call her back as she is.

"Safe in the arms of Jesus,
Safe on His gentle breast,
Freed from all pain and sighing
Sure of eternal rest."

—H. L. Bishop.

Clyde H. Morse is at his home in Barre for a few days to make some repairs on his mother's house.

Warren V. Gearson narrowly escaped a broken wrist when a car he was cranking backfired at his house last Sunday. As it is, he was injured so that he is unable to use his hand in his business.

Will Goodwin, a former citizen and later of Barre, was today yesterday with his niece, Mrs. H. A. Holt. Mr. Goodwin has for several years lived in Franconia, N. H.

One of the features of the exercises at the village cemetery on Memorial day was the singing of the old war-time song, "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," by a quartet composed of John Irons, Mrs. Blanche Nixon Poor, Mrs. Nina Jeffords Jewett and George H. Goodrich, the last being in charge of the singing of the day.

Miss Lena Thurber is employed as a nurse for Mrs. Mary Davis, at the home of Mrs. Lucy Whitney.

Many former residents took advantage of the opportunity to visit Williamstown on May 30, for the day or some part of it. Among these were Judge and Mrs. Frank J. Martin, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis D. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ditty, Miss Katherine Young, all of Barre, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Colby of Plainfield, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Edson and party of Montpelier.

The family of the late Frank Cross, for many years resident of the town and later of a city in Massachusetts, are now back in Barre and living on Washington street. The household includes, Mrs. Cross, daughter, Elizabeth, son, Henry, and his daughter, now 17 years of age, and Ernest Cross and wife. Horace Lasell of Springfield was in town last week for a visit to his mother, Mrs. Ada Lasell.

The boys of the junior high school have rented land and are planting potatoes on the farm of H. W. Adams, formerly the Pratt farm.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all our neighbors and friends for all the flowers and loving tokens which always filled the room of our loved one through the weeks of her sickness and which helped so much to brighten the lonely hours. Also for all help and sympathy extended to us in our time of bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Claffin, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bishop, Clyde M. Bishop, Carl R. Bishop.
